AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION

The American Bar Association will meet in San Francisco about August 6, 1922. Arrangements are now being made by the State Bar Association for the reception of the delegates. Immediately preceding the sessions of the American Bar Association the Commissioners on Uniform Laws meet. Their work and all the legal activities of the country are covered by the various sections of the Association. We shall have the opportunity of meeting and hearing from some of the ablest judges and lawyers in the country. It will be the greatest stimulus to the development of the law and to legal education. The inspiration of the meeting will be felt for years to come.

The unanimity and disinterestedness with which lawyers from all over the state worked to bring this meeting to San Francisco is another proof of the growing solidarity of the California Bar Association, which will make it the most effective organization in the state—an organization devoted impartially to the interests of the state as a whole.
